TD Charitable Foundation Offers Grants to Support Capital Improvements for Affordable Housing

The TD Charitable Foundation, the charitable giving arm of TD Bank, has announced that it will award a total of $1.7 million in grants through its fifth annual Housing for Everyone grant competition to support affordable housing initiatives from Maine to Florida.

The theme of this year's competition is "Capital Improvements for Affordable Housing." Preservation or improvement activities must make a qualitative difference in the lives of residents, improve the overall condition of the property, provide overall cost savings, and/or improve energy efficiency.

The foundation will award thirty-four grants ranging from $10,000 to $100,000 each to eligible housing nonprofit organizations that submit compelling proposals.

Applicant organizations must be tax-exempt under IRS Code 501(c)(3) or must be a state/local government entity; must develop or maintain affordable housing or provide housing-related programs and services to low- and moderate-income individuals or families; and must provide services in a TD Bank, N.A. metro market area. Applicants must also demonstrate fiscal responsibility and the impact they have made on affordable housing efforts in their communities.

Proposals will only be accepted online at the TD Bank Web site.

got breakfast? Foundation Accepting Applications for School Breakfast Grant Program

The got breakfast? Foundation, whose mission is to ensure that every child, regardless of background, starts the school day with a nutritious breakfast in order to learn, grow, and develop to his or her fullest potential, has announced its third round of Silent Hero Grants.

The Silent Hero program was created to encourage schools and nonprofit organizations to expand the reach of under-utilized child nutrition programs, most notably the National School Breakfast Program. The program recognizes, encourages, and rewards those silent heroes who help children start their day off right by serving breakfast. The program will award up to $50,000 in total grants to public schools, nonprofit private schools, and nonprofit 501(c)(3) organizations participating in the National School Breakfast Program. Priority selection will be given to programs creating a breakfast program where one did not exist before.

Grants of up to $5,000 each will be awarded. Grant funds can be used for such needs as serving equipment, program staffing, and nutrition education materials.

Visit the got breakfast? Foundation Web site for the complete Request for Applications.

USA Network Announces Characters Unite Awards to Recognize Community Heroes Fighting Prejudice and Discrimination

USA Network has announced the launch of the Second Annual Characters Unite Awards as part of the cable network's Characters Unite community affairs campaign to address social injustices and bridge cultural divides.

The awards were created to recognize extraordinary individuals who have made a significant and lasting difference through efforts to fight prejudice (age, race, ethnicity, gender, sexual orientation, disabilities) and to promote respect and acceptance. Nominees may, for example, be tackling teen bullying, advocating against hate crimes, promoting diversity, championing equal rights, or donating time or resources to give all people opportunities.

This year, eight winners will be selected to each receive a grant of $5,000 from USA Network to donate to his/her project or related nonprofit organization. The honorees and their work will also be featured on-air and at the Characters Unite Web site.

Nominations consist of an essay describing the nominee's impact, influence, and character in fighting social injustice. Nominees must be permanent, legal U.S. residents who are 18 years of age or older. Self-nominations are accepted.

Complete program information and nomination guidelines are available at the Characters Unite Web site.

Robert Wood Johnson Foundation Community Health Leaders Program Announces Call for Nominations

The Robert Wood Johnson Foundation Community Health Leaders program each year honors outstanding and otherwise unrecognized individuals who overcome daunting odds to improve health and healthcare, especially to underserved populations in communities across the United States. The program aims to elevate the work of these unsung heroes through enhanced recognition, technical assistance, and new leadership opportunities.

To be considered for a CHL award, a nominee must have contributed significantly to improving health and healthcare in his or her community; have created or substantially enhanced an initiative that improves access to and quality of care or services in his or her community; have positively affected a significant number of people in the targeted community; be in midcareer, with a three- to ten-year record of accomplishment associated with the community health issue for which he/she is nominated; not have received significant national recognition for his or her work; be a citizen or permanent resident of the United States or its territories; and be affiliated with a public or nonprofit organization that is tax-exempt under section 501 (c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code.

The program will make up to ten awards in the amount of $125,000 each for the 2011 cycle. Each new leader will receive a personal award of $20,000 to recognize his or her accomplishments and $105,000 to support a defined two-year project at the organization with which the leader is associated.

Visit the Community Health Leaders program Web site for the complete Call for Proposals.

Association of Performing Arts Presenters and MetLife Foundation Invite Entries for Final Year of Arts Access Awards

The Association of Performing Arts Presenters and the MetLife Foundation have announced the seventh and final year of the Arts Presenters/MetLife Arts Access Awards Program. The overarching goal of the program has been to recognize performing arts presenters and venues that demonstrated innovation, leadership, and a commitment to the full integration of older adults, immigrants, people with disabilities, and underserved communities as equal partners in the performing arts.

Awards will be presented in two categories:

The Arts Presenters/MetLife Arts Access Award: Engaging Individuals With Disabilities honors an organization that has been exemplary in its dedication and approach to engaging individuals with disabilities to experience and value the performing arts. This may be accomplished through programs and strategies that integrate new technologies, respond to recent demographic shifts, and/or establish an ongoing dialogue focused on individuals with sensory, cognitive, learning, developmental, and/or physical disabilities. Two awards of $10,000 each will be awarded.

The Arts Presenters/MetLife Arts Access Award: Engaging Underserved Communities honors an organization that has been exemplary and innovative in its dedication and approach to engaging underserved individuals and communities that lack access to the performing arts and cultural life in the community. Such access could be a result of, but not limited to, differences in geographic location, socioeconomic conditions, diverse backgrounds, or other factors. Applicants may identify their own underserved constituencies.

This award opportunity is open to Association of Performing Arts Presenters members only. All eligible applicants must be nonprofit or tax-exempt performing arts presenting and producing organizations.

Two awards of $10,000 each will be presented in each category.

Visit the APAP Web site for complete program guidelines and application procedures.

Microsoft Elevate America Announces New Employment Services Grant Initiative

Microsoft Corporation has announced the launch of the Elevate America community initiative, a new grant program to support nonprofit organizations offering employment services, including technology skills training and job placement, in local communities across the United States. The initiative is the latest extension of Elevate America, which was launched in 2009 to provide people across the country with no-and low-cost access to the technology skills they need to find employment.

To support the initiative, Microsoft is committing a total of $4 million in cash and $6 million in software and technology skills training curriculum over the next two years.

Grants will be allocated through a Request for Proposal process which invites nonprofits to share their plans for partnering with Microsoft on creating successful, scalable programs that respond to the twenty-first century skills training and employment needs of people across the U.S. For this initiative, the company has a particular but not exclusive interest in working with partners focused on the needs of women and young workers (ages 18-25).

Successful grant recipients will be funded to provide individuals with the support they need to find employment. The services provided by grant recipients to ensure a fully supportive experience for participants must include technology skills training, job placement, and strong employer connections and may also include career counseling and other support services such as childcare, transportation, and housing.

Grant applicants must be U.S.-based tax-exempt 501(c)(3) nonprofit organizations and their partner organizations, which may include workforce agencies, community colleges, labor organizations, and other nonprofit organizations.

Complete grant program guidelines and an eligibility survey for nonprofit organizations are available at the Microsoft Web site.

Mary Byron Project Invites Entries of Innovative Domestic Violence Programs for Celebrating Solutions Awards

The Mary Byron Project created the annual Celebrating Solutions Awards program to honor innovative programs that demonstrate promise in breaking the cycle of domestic violence.

MBP typically presents four awards of $10,000 each to pioneering programs that can serve as models for the nation. These are awards for accomplishments, not grants for future projects. Recipients are not required to render any further services as a condition of receiving a Celebrating Solutions Award.

To be eligible for the award, a program must address the issue of domestic violence and be part of a U.S. nonprofit with 501(c)(3) status under the Internal revenue Code or a government agency. Both the nominated program and the institution must have been operating for a minimum of three years. The program should be replicable, or, if it is national in scope, should have applications for individual communities, regardless of their size or ethnic population. Organizations operating outside the United States or a U.S. territory are not eligible.

Visit the Mary Byron Project Web site for complete program guidelines and application forms.

Funding Instrument Type: Grant

Category of Funding Activity: Housing

Category Explanation: This modification is a technical correction to the Notice of Funding Availability (NOFA) for HUD's FY2010 Lead Hazard Reduction Demonstration (LHRD) Grant Program that corrects Appendix A of the NOFA and form HUD 96009, and sets two new deadline dates. Appendix A of the NOFA inadvertently omitted three jurisdictions eligible to apply for the program (Syracuse, NY; Westchester County, NY; San Antonio, TX) and inadvertently included other jurisdictions that are ineligible for the program. HUD has corrected Appendix A and established November 4 as the deadline for jurisdictions above to submit an application and October 13 as the deadline for them to submit a match waiver request. HUD is extending to October 22 the deadline for the submission of LHRD applications by other jurisdictions unaffected by the error in Appendix A. For jurisdictions eligible under the Lead-Based Paint Hazard Control Grant Program NOFA, there is no change to the deadline date for submission and timely receipt. Form HUD 96009 was posted as a 36-month benchmark form but it should have been the 42-month LHRD benchmark form; HUD has corrected the benchmark form HUD 96009. IT IS IMPERATIVE THAT YOU FULLY REVIEW THE DEADLINE DATES. Please read the technical correction in file LHRDmco TC - Adobe Acrobat Pro.pdf, and use the corrected form HUD 96009, both files are in the new instructions for applying for this grant opportunity.

Performance Deficiencies. In order to receive an award under this NOFA competition, an existing grantee applicant must not have received a "Red" Performance designation for any active grant from the OHHLHC that included its being behind schedule in meeting the OHHLHC's standard Performance benchmarks for either housing unit production or funds expenditure for both of the last two consecutive reporting periods before the application deadline. If such an applicant is selected for an award, an award will not be made to that applicant unless the Performance deficiency is corrected by you achieving a "Yellow" or "Green" Performance designation and meeting the OHHLHC's standard benchmarks for both housing unit production and funds expenditure. If you fail to correct the Performance deficiency within three months after selection, HUD may cancel the award and then offer an award to, and negotiate with, the next highest-ranking qualified applicant not selected.4. If you received an award under the FY 2009 NOFA cycle for any of the programs in this NOFA, you are not eligible to apply, unless you received partial funding. Applicants partially funded for any program in FY2009 may apply for funds under this NOFA. However, applicants who received funding under the Fiscal Year 2009 Lead Hazard Control Capacity Building Grant Program are eligible to apply and will be considered a "new applicant."

Description

The Healthy Homes Production Program is part of HUD's overall Healthy Homes Initiative launched in 1999. The program takes a comprehensive approach to addressing multiple childhood diseases and injuries in the home by focusing on housing-related hazards in a coordinated fashion, rather than addressing a single hazard at a time. The program builds upon HUD's successful Lead Hazard Control programs to expand the Department's efforts to address a variety of high-priority environmental health and safety hazards.
